

ORLEN Germany restructures its management

Elmshorn, 24th August 2018 – ORLEN Deutschland GmbH appoints two new Managing Directors. The experienced managers Waldemar Bogusch and Oskar Skiba are two new additions to the company's management team, which currently operates more than 580 petrol stations, largely under the brand name star.

The restructuring and expansion of the management team initiated by PKN ORLEN is a way of adapting to the positive corporate development on the German market. As such, ORLEN Germany is in prime position to continue its growth strategy.

57-year-old Waldemar Bogusch took on the role of chairperson of the four-member management team (CEO) on 20th August. The qualified civil engineer has worked in various leadership positions in the German construction industry since 1988. Most recently he was a Project Manager for large construction projects in a Southern German architectural firm. "I am excited to face the new role and the challenges it comes with," Bogusch explains. "I have been observing ORLEN Germany's considerable development for a long time. My goal is to work with the team to continue this success story."

54-year-old Oskar Skiba took on the position of Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of ORLEN Germany on 1st August. He studied at the Universities of Szczecin, Poznan and Bayreuth as well as doing a postgraduate degree at the Warsaw School of Economics. After 15 years in leadership positions in banking, including in Germany, Skiba worked in companies in the fields of aviation, transport and medicine. In total, he has over 30 years of management experience and has been on various supervisory boards.

As well as Bogusch and Skiba, the ORLEN Deutschland GmbH management team consists of the Chief Operating Officer (COO) Dariusz Pawlik (40) and the Chief Marketing Officer (CMO) Wieslaw Milkiwicz (51), who has successfully run the company as a Managing Director for eight years.
