

Snack it: ORLEN Deutschland has added a nut mix to its range of own brand products

Elmshorn, 17th January 2023 – Alles kann, Nuss muss – ORLEN Deutschland is using this German slogan to promote the new star nut mix, which has been added to the Elmshorn company's own brand portfolio. It is the perfect companion: For on the go or as an energy source for work and sport, and now available at all nearly 600 star and ORLEN filling stations.

Top up your energy reserves in a flash to provide top performance: Something which sounds simple can't always be achieved very quickly. According to numerous studies and research, nuts are regarded as a perfect and healthy source of energy and protein, since they contain important minerals and vitamins, as well as potassium, sodium and magnesium. They are also said to have a positive effect on heart health and reduce the risk of cancer. ORLEN Deutschland is now bringing a healthy snack for between meals to its nearly 600 star and ORLEN stations with the star nut mix. The 80-grams mix consists of peanuts, cashews, almonds, hazelnuts and raisins. Unsweetened and unsalted, the snack is available in a compact and handy pack.

"Particularly at the beginning of the year, people pay more attention to having a healthy lifestyle and diet. Our nut mix is the perfect choice, because good intentions for mobile people on the go are often difficult to implement," says Kai Frahm, Head of Category Management at ORLEN Deutschland GmbH. The nut mix complements the popular star range of own brand products, which includes different mineral waters and energy drinks, chewing gum and curry ketchup, among other things.

The star nut mix as a healthy companion for consumption at home or "to go" is available for €1.49 (non-binding price recommendation).
